
Important: Pursuant to Section 155 of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, (HEA) and to satisfy the Section 28(a)(3) of the Truth in Lending Act, a lender must obtain certification signed by the applicant before disbursing a private education loan. The school is required on request to provide this form or the required information if the student is admitted or enrolled at the school throughout the Applicant Self-Certification, and you refer to the applicant who is applying for the loan. The applicant and the student may be the same person.

Instructions: Before signing, carefully read the entire form, including the definitions and other information on the following pages. Send form to your lender
